12. Level of awareness of legal rights expressed by targeted beneficiaries

Date	Topic of Listening Group	Targeted Group of Beneficiaries	Transcript Recorded	Analysis				Level of Awareness Expressed
				Common Words	Conversation Framework	Internal Agreement	Precision of Response
6/26/2013	Awareness Raising Campaigns on Gender Equality and the Rights of Children	Men Aged 18 to 50 in Mazar	Yes	The most common words used included women, rights, books, Afghan, family, legal, cases, decisions, and messages.	The conversation operated in a free flowing framework which allowed the participants to openly express their views and share illustrative anecdotes.	The listening group attained widespread consensus on the efficacy of mobile theater performances and comic books. The men agreed that the mobile theaters conveyed the rights of women and consequences of violating these rights. The comic books successfully communicated legal awareness messages to children as well.	Responses were precise. However, the majority of responses commented on the the success, failures and lessons learned from the public outreach campaigns without involving personal experiences.	Very Aware
6/30/2013	Awareness Raising Campaigns on Gender Equality and the Rights of Children\	Men Aged 18 to 35 in Herat	Yes	The most common words used included women, society, Jirga, rights, family, video, messages, violence, legal and solutions.	The conversation operated in a free flowing framework which allowed the participants to openly express their views and share illustrative anecdotes.	The listening group reached internal agreement on the importance of sharing messages from public legal outreach materials and campaigns with their family members. The men felt the message of the video public service announcements was impactful and likely to stay with viewers.	The men's responses were precise and incorporated personal experiences which indicates that the messages of the campaigns were well received.	Very Aware
Conclusion: Male beneficiaries appear very aware as the result of public legal outreach activities. As it conducts more listening groups, RLS-Formal has begun to conclude that the level of awareness of legal rights expressed by targeted beneficiaries is reaching the "Very Aware" stage as opposed to "Aware" or "Less Aware." The project will make a final determination following a series of listening groups in FY 2013 Q4 and FY 2013 Q1.
